This will be the last goal sheet for the year!! Woohoo, right??

I know I have said it many times, but your child has been a joy to spend my time with. It is a privilege and an honor to sow those little seeds of faith, to water them, and to watch them grow. God has some pretty special plans for your child, and I was blessed to be a small part of their life!! They will forever be in my heart!!

Next Tuesday is our trip to Aikman Wildlife. Please have your child bring a sack lunch, ice cold water, and wear comfortable tennis shoes.

My plan is to walk to Nick's Park one day this week. If anyone is available to chaperone our walk, please let me know. We'll have our snack at the park.

We've all worked hard this year to accomplish so much.....Friday we will celebrate our accomplishments with fun, cookie cake, craft, and character certificates coming home!

Subject Goals:

Reading: We are playing various games to review and reinforce our skills

Writing: We have been reviewing and perfecting our writing skills.

Math: We are reviewing our skills daily and working to complete our book.

Science: Our caterpillars are in their chrysalises... now we'll wait patiently for the Lord to transform them! The edible caterpillars were delicious! Who knows...? Maybe edible butterflies next??
